

will broke so many records at Fort Myer last summer. It has made all sorts of speeds and all sorts of long time flights, and under the hands of Orville and Wilbur it has shown its stability under all sorts of conditions. Both pilot, Lamm and Lieut. Humphreys have shown ability as operators of the biplane, and the spectators do not believe that any fault can be attached to them for the smash. The only criticism that could be made was that the biplane was kept too low, too close to the ground.

All the materials needed for the repairs are in the shed at College Park and consequently the work will be little time lost in fixing up the damaged wing and the elevating structure. All three officers will aid in this work and even if Mr. Wright does not come back it doubtless will be carried on as speedily as possible.

ASSOCIATION FAVORS COMMISSION'S RULE

Lincoln Park Citizens Oppose Any Change in Present Government.

Opposition to an yproposed change in the present form of the District government is expressed in a resolution adopted by the Lincoln Park Citizens' Association, a copy of which was received by the commission yesterday. The resolution states that "this association favors a continuation of the present form of government, and is unalterably opposed to the change recommended by the so-called Reynolds report, which makes possible the appointment by the President of a single executive officer who is not a resident of the District of Columbia."

WEST VIRGINIA MOB FOILED BY GOVERNOR

Two Negroes, Under Guard of Militia, Are Spirited Away to County Seat Early This Morning for Safekeeping—Quiet Reigns at Cassaway.

CASSAWAY, W. Va., Nov. 5.—Guarded by two companies of the National Guard, over whom Gov. W. E. Glasscock had been in personal command all night, Scott Lewis and A. Johnson, the two negroes who were held here as accomplices to the brutal assault on Mrs. Albert Rockhold, were spirited away from the mayor's office at daybreak today, and taken to Sutton, the county seat, where they were locked in jail.

Governor Glasscock and Adjutant General Burrows left here for Charleston on a special train at 6:50, and quiet again reigns after hours of the greatest excitement, when it was expected any moment that the mob of 2,000 men surrounding the house where the negroes were confined, would storm the place and lynch the men.

So serious had the situation become late yesterday that the governor and Adjutant General Burrows left Charleston on a special train and arrived here at 7:30. Governor Glasscock addressed the mob, entreating them to allow the negroes to be taken to Sutton and placed on trial. The crowd merely cheered the governor for his loyalty to the State, but stood their ground. The situation was made more acute by the militia, who asserted they would not fire on the mob. The State has never been so aroused over an assault as this one, for which Charles Lewis, a third negro implicated, has already given his life to the mob. The posse pursuing Lewis shot him on sight. Johnson and Lewis were given a secret hearing and positively identified by both Rockhold and his wife as the men who had gathered near their home early Wednesday. With the coming of a recovery of Mrs. Rockhold further details of the attack have become known which show the work of the fends to have been the boldest and most brutal in the history of the State.

Clarence F. Norment, chairman of the finance committee, said today he believed only the one appeal would be necessary, and that the necessary fund of $50,000 would be secured in a few days.

LIBERALS ANGERED BY IRISH MEMBER

They Now Threaten to Abandon Irish Home Rule Movement.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The rank and file of the liberal majority in the house of commons, which last night passed the budget by a vote of 379 to 149, are today deeply incensed at the action of the Irish nationalists in abstaining from voting on the bill.

Their votes were not needed, but the liberals expected their support, in view of the fiscal concessions to Ireland for which the bill provided. The liberals are declaring today that the pact no further support from the liberal party.

POLICE FOLLOW TRAIL OF EXPRESS ROBBERS

American and Canadian Officers Believe They Have Good Clue to the Bandits Who Boldly Beat Down and Robbed Cashier.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ontario, Nov. 5.—Inspector W. H. Mains, of the local police, with Detective George Callinan, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., started early today on the trail of the two bandits who yesterday beat down Cashier William Dobson, of the Canadian Express Company, and robbed the office of $14,156. The police believe they have the right clue and think it will bring results before night.

R. Bruce Brown, the local agent, with other employees, had gone out of the office to put other express matter aboard a train, leaving Dobson to prepare the money for shipment. Hardly had Brown left the place when two men entered the office, at the extreme west end of the station. One stood near the door and the other approached the counter and called to Dobson, who was at the desk.

The cashier approached and one of the men asked if a trunk had arrived for him.

Dobson does not remember the name the stranger gave. Just as Dobson reached under the counter to get his "on-hand" book, the fellow reached over the counter and struck him behind the right ear with a piece of gas pipe, wrapped with insulation tape. The man jumped over the counter, grabbed the package of money from the desk, and with his companion made off.

It was a full half hour before Dobson recovered and then he was unable to give a lucid description of the two robbers.
